CORAM : DR. D.Y.CHANDRACHUD,J.

20TH DECEMBER, 2006.

P.C. :

1. The Petition is directed against an interlocutory order of the University and College Tribunal declining to allow the application for production of additional evidence. The interference of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution is not warranted at the present stage. While disposing of the Petition however, it is clarified that should it become necessary for the Petitioner to challenge the final order of the Tribunal, the Petitioner would be at liberty to do so on all grounds available in law including those which have been urged in the present Petition.
